

Brown Bag Event

Tales of Two Sons

Prof. Charles L. Cohen
Dep. of History and Religious Studies
Director of Lubar Institute
University of Wisconsin-Madison

The Abrahamic Religions all revere Abraham, but they do so in different ways. They also tell different stories about Abraham and his sons, Isaac and Ishmael. Professor Cohen will open the issues that these variations pose and then invite the audience to discuss what they might mean for interfaith conversations.

Join us for a Brown Bag Talk with Professor Cohen.
